Games with Purpose
Gasper River Staff

Main Room

Games! If you can't sit still and need to move, come join the Gasper River Staff and play some really fun games, learn about Jesus and meet others!

Ask a Priest
Fr. Larry Hostetter and Fr. Martin Ma Na Ling

Room A

Behold the Pierced One, The Sacred Heart of Jesus
Ian Barnstead

Room B

The Sacred Heart of Jesus is a devotion in the Church that goes back hundreds of years. This session will explore the theology behind it and what it shows about Jesus's love for each of us.

Qualifying the Called – Christ is Calling You to Lead
Shanda Purcell

Room C

Don't consider yourself a leader or think you have what it takes? Come find out why each of us has all that we need to be a leader.

Identity Beyond the Jersey
Katie Bickers

Room D

Katie will share the highs and lows of reaching her dream of playing Division 1 soccer and tell the story of how this dream actually panned out. She will talk about what a relationship with God looked like as a college athlete, and how this relationship goes beyond the jersey that you wear.

Code Red Youth
Rebecca Woodall

Room E

Help youth create their own "mental health f escape plan" before they ever have their worst day. Youth identify trusted people they can contact, resources they can turn to, and steps they can take when they're overwhelmed or struggling—so they've already made the important decisions before a crisis happens.

Why Discipleship Beats Programming - Adult Session
Michael Marchand

Room C

Today's teens are more connected and more lonely than any generation before them, and a great event or a polished curriculum can't carry them on its own. In this first session, we'll tear down a few false altars of youth ministry and rediscover what actually forms young disciples: real relationships and a faith that's handed on, not just taught. You'll leave with a clear picture of your role as a leader and a vision for what ministry can look like in your parish.

¿Sin un plano? Definiendo el éxito más allá de las fronteras y bajo mis propios términos
Cesar Berrios

Room D
Language: Spanish

Como inmigrante de primera generación proveniente de Centroamérica, enfrenté desafíos que muchas veces parecían más grandes que mis propias circunstancias. En esta sesión compartiré cómo la resiliencia, la perseverancia y el propósito me ayudaron a superar barreras, redefinir el éxito y construir mi propio camino sin tener un plano a seguir.

Ask a Therapist Anything
Ethan Bennett, Cassidy Campbell, and Alyssa Carneal

Room E

Anonymously ask questions to three Catholic therapists. You will learn about mental health from a Catholic perspective and learn skills to deal with difficult emotions.

Dating: Ask Your Question
Susy Solorza and John Shelman

Wondering how faith and dating actually fit together? What does God have to say about who you date, how you treat others, and how you deserve to be treated? This is an opportunity to ask whatever is on your mind about dating. Join us for an open Q&A where middle and high schoolers can talk honestly and discover what it means to build relationships that honor God and respect your true dignity. Discover how understanding your true dignity changes everything about how you love.

Room B

Accompanying Young People on the Journey Home - Adults
Michael Marchand

Room C

The conference ends today, but the real work of discipleship starts when the teens return to their ordinary lives. This session gets practical with small-group basics, from how to invite and listen to how to lead conversations that lead to Jesus, so you can walk with young people long after the mountaintop moment. You'll leave with simple, repeatable next steps you can start using the week you get home.

No Blueprint? Defining Success Beyond Borders and On My Own Terms
Cesar Berrios

Room D
Language: English

Growing up as a first-generation immigrant from Central America, I faced challenges that often felt bigger than my circumstances. This session explores how resilience, perseverance, and purpose helped me overcome barriers, redefine success, and build a path forward without a blueprint to follow.
