Christmas Morning Litany of Thanksgiving

---

Leader:

God our Father, this Christmas morning, with the Blessed Virgin Mary, we rejoice in the gift of your only Son, Jesus Christ, come into the world as our long-awaited Savior.

May the mystery of the Word made flesh be enthroned in our hearts as our most prized gift, far above any material gifts we may receive today.

Let us recall the many gifts that Christ bestows on us by his coming into the world:

For the gift of Mary, our Mother, with her gentle and pure heart that leads us always to you.

All: Christ, we adore you and we thank you.

For the gift St. Joseph, guardian of the Holy Family, and model of perseverance in faith.

All: Christ, we adore you and we thank you.

For the gift the Catholic Church, through whom you revealed your revealed your divine plan to us.

All: Christ, we adore you and we thank you.

For the gift of Baptism, where we are reborn and made children of God the Father.

All: Christ, we adore you and we thank you.

For the gift of Confirmation, which gives us an increased outpouring of the Holy Spirit to sanctify us.

All: Christ, we adore you and we thank you.

For the gift of the holy Eucharist that transforms us, which was foreshadowed as you lay in a manger.

All: Christ, we adore you and we thank you.

For the gift of hope in your second coming, when we will live with you forever in Heaven.

All: Christ, we adore you and we thank you.

All: Our Father... Hail Mary... Glory Be... Amen.
