

St. Joseph's School (in Bowling Green, KY) is seeking a full-time Information Technology Specialist. The position would include the following duties--installation, troubleshooting and repair of computers/chromebooks, operating as Google Admin, creating and maintaining databases for all educational software and programs, help with the student information system and its functions, teaching technology concepts to students, working with teachers and classroom operations. Pay is negotiable. Experience in Computer Sciences is a plus, education experience is another advantage.

If you are interested, please contact Rodney Schwartz, SJS Principal, at 270-842-1235 or email at rschwartz@stjosephschoolbg.org