

Catholic Charities of the Diocese of Evansville is currently searching for an Outreach Specialist for Hispanic Populations. The person holding this position is responsible for designing, developing and delivering (or overseeing delivery from an external source) programs and services that assist immigrant residents to navigate well and integrate into the local communities of the diocese. It's important that the person work well with local business, government, non-profit and community collaborators. Understanding the Catholic call to be welcoming as well as the richness that diversity brings a community is imperative.

The successful candidate will have a B.S. or B.A. in Social Work, Education, Spanish, Public Administration or other relevant degree.

The home office for this service is in Evansville, Indiana. However, the staff person must be available for day travel and assignments throughout the 12 counties of southwest Indiana.

Evansville, Indiana is a vibrant community located on the Ohio River and is the center of a three-state SMSA. It is home to over 150,000 residents and is conveniently located to St. Louis, Nashville, Louisville and Indianapolis. The diocese is celebrating its 75th anniversary beginning November 2019.

The position has a start date of July 1, 2019 or upon hire.

Please send a cover letter, current resume, and list of three professional references to Dr. Sharon Burns, Ph.D., at ccjobs@evdio.org.

Applications will be accepted until the position is filled.
