Say Amen! To What You Are, V 647

Liturgy Training Publication, 30 min., Adult

This video is a documentary of the communion rite and how it is celebrated each week by one Roman Catholic parish, St. Henry Church in Cleveland, Ohio. The core of this program focuses on the communion rite; therefore, the entire Mass is not shown. We see the worshipers pray the Our Father, greet each other with a sign of peace, prepare the holy gifts and themselves during the Lamb of God litany and its procession, and come forward rejoicing to the table. There they reverently receive as they say their "Amen" to the proclamation of the bread and wine and themselves as the body of Christ. We also hear how this week-after-week experience nourishes the parishioners so that they can then go out and feed others.

Walk Through the Mass, V 2167

St. Anthony Messenger Press, 35 min., JH -Adult

This video explores some of the meaning behind the celebration of Eucharist and takes a step-by-step look at the four principal parts of the Mass.

What Catholics Believe About the Eucharist, DVD 22
Liguori, 30 min. ea., Adult

Host Father Mitch Doyen, warmly invites viewers to come along on this fast-paced interactive introductions into the beliefs of the Catholic Church.

Basic introductory questions have been chosen and are presented here in an interesting multiple-choice, true-or-false, or yes-and-no format to actively involve and inform the viewer. Even among Catholics there is a wide range of attitudes and responses--some right and some wrong! While you ponder your response, these unrehearsed “on camera people in the pew” responses will surprise you! The moment of truth...the correct answer is given and then... A concise, down-to-earth, and understandable catechesis is presented by Father Matthew Bonk, C.Ss.R., our expert for this program.

With Burning Hearts, V 1030
Fr. Henry Nowen, 45 min., Adult

What difference does it make if I go to church or not? What does liturgy have to do with life? These are age-old challenges to people of faith. In this outstanding video, Fr. Henri Nouwen answers these questions with depth, insight, and passion. With Burning Hearts points unerringly in the direction of the “eucharistic life”.

HOSPITALITY

LITURGICAL SEASONS

Easter Vigil, V 2141
LTP, 30 min., Adult

"This is the night," the cantor proclaims over and over. It is the great Vigil of Easter. The night is spent first around a blazing fire, then around the newly lighted candle, then around the scriptures where some of our best stories are told again. Finally comes the calling of the saints as all process to the font. Those who have been long preparing renounce evil, profess their faith in Christ and enter the waters. After they are anointed with chrism, they go with the whole joyful assembly to celebrate the Eucharist. It is a splendid night!

Good Friday, V 2140
LTP, 30 min., Adult

This video explains what happens on the afternoon or evening of Good Friday. The church assembles in a way that is unlike any other day of the year. Kneeling or prostrate, all are silent. Then, the scriptures are proclaimed and prayers of intercession are chanted. Finally, the holy cross is set down in the midst of the church and each person comes forward to honor the wood of the cross, singing of how we Christians glory in the cross.

Holy Thursday, V 2139
LTP, 30 min., Adult

On this video, we see and hear how the church assembles on Thursday night and processes into the Paschal Triduum. After the assembly has heard powerful scripture readings, have washed each other's feet, have raised a collection for the poor, have celebrated Eucharist together and have sung and processed with the blessed sacrament, then the Three Days are well begun.

Let's Celebrate Holy Week, V 622
You Are Church, Inc., H.S. - Adult

Fr. Malcolm Smith explains the Easter Liturgies. The week leading to Easter Sunday is the most sacred and solemn time of the Christian calendar. The more people understand the signs, symbols and gestures of Holy Week Liturgies, the more they will enter into the heart of the Christ Mystery of Easter. As the different Liturgies unfold, Fr. Malcolm comments and explains, while motivating the viewer to enter fully into the spirit of each celebration.

Rolling Back the Rock: The Religious Meaning of Holy Week, V 596

ACTA Publications, 120 min., H.S. - Adult

John Shea, master storyteller and theologian, reflects on the true meaning of Holy Thursday, Good Friday and Holy Saturday/Easter Sunday. Divided into four half-hour segments with questions for discussion and reflection after each.

LITURGY WITH CHILDREN

Children Liturgies - 1988, V 247

Elizabeth Jeep, 1 hr. 50 min., Adult

Catholic Worship is a treasure of immense value. Catholic Worship is an activity that defines us and sustains us and draws us together as people. It is essential that our children take their place, their rightful place in this worship. How can we celebrate so that “full and active participation” becomes possible for them?

Children, Liturgy and the Word, V 1069 & 2223

LTP, 26 min., Adult

This is a resource for any parish that wants to begin the Liturgy of the Word with Children or wishes to evaluate and enhance their current celebration.

When We Sing, V 821

LTP, 30 min., Adult

Well-known authors, composers, lyricists, poets and practitioners of church music from many denominations discuss why we sing in church Sunday by Sunday and what we expect of a text, a tune and ourselves when we sing. Singing is more than selecting hymns to go with the readings. This video will get you excited again about singing.

RCIA

This Is the Night, V 735

Liturgy Training Publications, 30 min., Adult

Can a whole parish be involved in initiation? Are the public rites of welcoming, scrutiny and dismissal embarrassing for the catechumens? Is immersion baptism only for the avant-garde parishes? In the vision of the order of Christian initiation, the Easter Vigil crowns the many celebrations that have marked the journey a parish makes with those who wish to join it in faith. This video follows the elect and the candidates from the celebration of the scrutinies during Lent through their baptism and reception at the Easter Vigil to Easter Sunday morning.

RECONCILIATION

Sacrament of Reconciliation, V 229

Tabor, 3 30 min. seg., Adult

Participants deepen their appreciation of the sacramental celebration of repentance and forgiveness.

Segment 1: Sin and Guilt

Segment 2: Sacrament of Forgiveness and Growth

Segment 3: How To Go To Confession

What Catholics Believe About Reconciliation, V 658

Liguori, 31 min., Adult

Reconciliation is one of the greatest and yet one of the least understood of the sacraments.

This video gets to the bottom of some misconceptions which have plagued Catholics, and gets to the heart of the joy in celebrating reconciliation. Father Michael Tueth discusses forgiveness, who it applies to, how it offers us the opportunity of growing closer to God, and why we should go to confession. In addition, he helps the viewer understand the reasons for penance, and the part the priest plays in leading them through.

SERVERS

V 2325 Training the Mass Server

The Liturgical Press, 41 min., Adult

The young people who are Mass servers perform an essential ministry to God and God's people. You can help them to serve their best by offering them this clear, concise, well-organized training program geared especially to them.

This video is divided into three parts, Part 1 explains how young people should prepare; Part 2 gives directions for serving during the Liturgy of the Word; and Part 3, for serving during the Liturgy of the Eucharist. Objects and terms that servers will encounter are explained. Most importantly, the video reinforces the value of this ministry and encourages young people to serve with willing hearts and minds. Pastors, associate pastors, liturgy directors, and anyone entrusted with the training of servers will welcome this practical, encouraging video.
